

1. A concept about Datasets:

if the input variables in a dataset are all numeric and the respective ranges of those input variables vary ($\equiv$ are pretty different), we had better standardize the inputs of the dataset before using them.